Any unwarranted interruptions may be appealed to the Scholar Committee (any two or three of the following: OD, RD, EK), and if appeal is won by Scholar, will be paid either at the rate of $5 per hour, or by the repeal of any lines assessed up to that point and not run, but not both, at the preference of the Scholar. Scholar should give due notice in the event of an interruption she considers unwarranted, and still cooperate if insisted upon, though she does retain the right to appeal.
